

Dunoon Wastewater Treatment Works, Scotland

In 2011 Scottish Water invested £34 million in a new Wastewater Treatment Works in Dunoon to protect the natural environment of the Firth of Clyde and Holy Loch.

Tracey Concrete supplied 420M of DN 1200mm jacking pipes and a range of precast drainage products to specialist subcontractor Ward and Burke.

WARD & BURKE
CONSTRUCTION LIMITED